Children are our future, and they are the future of humanity, and we are united in our concern for them and the impact of war upon them. It is so important for the world to hear the story of the children of Ukraine in this terrible time of war.

The small group discussions are a very important part of our Symposia, because they offer the opportunity for dialogue and interaction between Ukrainian Psychotherapists and European Psychotherapists. In this Symposium the focus for the small groups will be the games which children play in the time of war. We wish to place ourselves in the perspective of children – their innocence and vulnerability, and also their wisdom – and focusing on their games will help us to do that.

We are delighted to have invited Madame Zelensky to give a short speech to our Symposium, and we very much hope that she is able to attend.

The Symposium will be held on Friday February 23rd 2023 remotely on the "Zoom" platform. Please add it on your computer, smartphone, or tablet (<https://zoom.us/download>).

The Symposium will be held in Ukrainian, Czech and English with simultaneous translation of presentations.

The event is free for psychotherapists. Registration is mandatory. Only registered participants will be able to participate in the Symposium.

Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions, participate in small group discussions and communicate in a round table discussion with their cameras and microphones turned on (if desired).

Certificates of attendance of 6 hours of professional development will be sent to all Symposium participants along with video recordings and lecture slides.
